

STABBING AFFAIR

HEARING ADJOURNED

Campbell had never spoken to Hensell before and knew no reason why he should attack him.

R. W. Hensell appeared before Magistrate Cowan yesterday afternoon in the police station charged with an attempt to murder Chas. Campbell, hater, Edmonton. W. A. Griesbach was present on behalf of the prosecution and C. W. Cross appeared for the accused.

Chas. Campbell was first called. He had spent Saturday afternoon in company with G. C. Omand driving in the country. Returning about 6.45 he went into the Grand Central Hotel. On entering he had seen Hensell sitting in the office with his eyes closed as if asleep. Campbell went down stairs and coming up met Jas. Omand at the top of the stairs and stopped to talk to him. He had been speaking for a minute or two when he was attacked by accused who stabbed him on the head. Turning to ward off the blow he was stabbed twice more on the head. He still remaining "you're whom I am looking for." Accused then turned to leave the room but a number of men who had gathered in locked the door and Hensell was not permitted to leave.

Cross examined by C. W. Cross Campbell stated that he had never spoken to the accused before and that there was no reason why he should attack him. Hensell did not seem excited when he committed the assault.

The last Campbell had seen Saturday evening was produced by the prosecution. The hit had been cut in three places, two inches and one long gash.

Jas. Omand was then called. He is an engineer. Asked if he remembered anything particular that had happened in the Grand Central Saturday evening, he said he knew of nothing particular. Asked if he knew Hensell, he couldn't say that he had ever seen him before. The magistrate judging from Omand's incoherent replies to the questions put to him asked him if he had been drinking. He confessed he had somewhat and after reprimanding Omand the magistrate adjourned the case until this morning at ten o'clock.

The case came up again this morning. Omand testified to seeing Hensell in the room walking away from Campbell who was bleeding from the head. He did not see any stabbing and heard no words spoken. Constable McCulloch was next called. He arrested the accused, Hensell, and took him to the Fire Hall searching him he found a knife smeared with blood in his pocket. This concluded the evidence and the magistrate committed Hensell to trial.

THE RESULT

It certainly was a famous victory. With majorities in all but two of the provinces, and a clean sweep in two the Government has a mandate for its forward policy such as Governments of Canada have seldom received. A majority vaster than has been. Every member of the cabinet was re-elected and the leader of the opposition was defeated. There is only one way of accounting for such a tremendous sweep, and that is that the people have faith in the Government and its policy. Wild accusations of corrupt influences are made by the Winnipeg Telegram and other Conservative papers. But no possible amount of corrupt means could give such sweeping, such overwhelming majorities. Means of a questionable character are not used where such results are expected. And such results are expected. And such results are brought about except as an expression of the public mind.

The defeat of the leader of the opposition and the clean sweep of his home province by the Government is a remarkable feature of the contest. It is the appreciation by that province of the Government's efforts through the new transcontinental railway to bring the winter trade of the Great West over Nova Scotia railways to Nova Scotia ports. And it is the answer of the province to Mr. Borden's hair-splitting arguments intended to show that the Government was building 800 miles of railway connecting Nova Scotia with the west as a means of taking trade by other railways to other ports. What will be Mr. Borden's future course can scarcely be conjectured. The result of the contest shows his leadership a failure. He had no taste for political life and may take the opportunity to quietly retire, especially as Mr. Foster, who has been four years in exile from Parliament, is now re-entering parliamentary life, and is no doubt as competent as he is anxious for the leadership.

In New Brunswick the defection of Mr. Blair was expected to cause a landslide; but the only change is that St. John city with its second member has done as it did in the by-election, and elected an opponent of the Government. The net result of Mr. Blair's resignation is that the Government has lost the two St. John city seats in New Brunswick.

In Prince Edward Island the Government has lost one seat, and the Island which now has only four members sends only one Liberal to three Conservatives. The reason for the change there is strictly local; except in so far as that the Island Province, because it is an island, is the only one that does not stand to benefit directly and greatly by the construction of the Transcontinental.

The feature in Quebec is the dropping out of public life of J. L. Tarte, who has cut such a wide swath in the politics of Canada during many years past. A Conservative supporter, Liberal cabinet minister, and later, French lieutenant of the Conservative party, his career has been varied and even brilliant. When during last session of Parliament he was dropped from the French Conservative leadership he apparently took that as a notice to quit public life at least for a time, and he did not offer for re-election during the recent campaign. Mr. Monk, the French Conservative leader, has been re-elected and his party from Quebec now number ten, out of 65, a gain of three over last Parliament. On the Government side there were no not-

GREAT SWEEP FOR ROOSEVELT

Is Returned to Power with a Largely Increased Majority
He Carried Almost Every State in the Union with the Exception of the Solid South.

New York, N. Y., November 9th.—From returns at hand at this hour the electoral vote stands as follows:

For Roosevelt, California 10, Connecticut 7, Delaware 3, Illinois 27, Indiana 15, Iowa 13, Kansas 10, Maine 6, Massachusetts 10, Michigan 14, Minnesota 11, Nebraska 8, New Hampshire 4, New York 30, New Jersey 12, North Dakota 4, Ohio 23, Oregon 4, Pennsylvania 34, Rhode Island 4, South Dakota 4, Vermont 4, Washington 5, Wisconsin 13, Wyoming 3, total 293.

For Parker, Alabama 11, Arkansas 9, Florida 5, Georgia 13, Kentucky 13, Louisiana 7, Mississippi 10, Missouri 18, North Carolina 9, Tennessee 12, Texas 18, Virginia 12. Total 115.

Doubtful, and not heard from, Colorado 5, Idaho 3, Maryland 8, Montana 3, Nevada 3, Utah 3, West Virginia 7. Total 32. Necessary to elect 139.

New York November 9th.—If Maryland has gone Republican as unofficial returns indicate the Republican vote in the electoral college will be unprecedented, 325 for Roosevelt and Fairbanks to 115 for Parker and Davis. Not only is this far in excess of McKinley's vote, 292 in 1900, but Judge Parker's vote is four less than that given Mr. Bryan four years ago.

It is practically certain that the Republican national ticket has carried every state in the Union outside the so-called solid south. It may take the official count to decide Maryland. The Republican majority in the next House of Representatives will not be less than 50.

THE RESULT

able changes. Sir Wilfrid retains his popularity in his own province and holds two seats.

Ontario, the largest province, and the most conservative, was the storm centre. The contest opened with a Conservative majority of 18 in Ontario and it closed with a majority of 10. The gain of the Government in Ontario was no doubt due to some extent to the readjustment of the boundaries of the constituencies. But that is not sufficient to account for it all. The strong common sense of the people unquestionably approved of the results of Liberal rule, and of the Government's railway policy as well. The attempt to raise race animosity against the Premier over the dismissal of Lord Dunsford signally failed; and it is to be hoped we have seen the last of such attempts in Canada. There were a number of local changes in Ontario due to local causes. The most notable feature was the re-entry into Parliament of the Hon. George E. Foster by way of North Toronto, where he defeated Mayor Urquhart. Toronto now has two representatives worthy of leadership, as far as ability goes, Mr. Foster and Mr. Clark, yet there are reasons which make it doubtful if the opposition leadership will fall to either, even if Mr. Borden retires. The defeat of A. B. Aylesworth, who was slated for a cabinet place, was the only serious rebuff received by the Government in Ontario.

Manitoba, with an increase of three members, gives six, and probably seven Liberals to three Conservatives, as against three Liberals, three Conservatives and a labor representative when parliament was dissolved. The feature in Manitoba was the capture of the city of Winnipeg by the Government candidate. Winnipeg has elected Liberals but seldom, and the return of Mr. Bole by a majority well into the hundreds, can only be taken as an emphatic endorsement of the Government and its railway proposals. The defeat of Messrs. Lariviere and Boyd, well known figures in Manitoba politics for many years, also shows a strong trend of public opinion in favor of the Government. This is further indicated by the large majorities secured by all but one of the Government candidates, including the Minister of Interior, who defeated R. L. Richardson, his most determined and most adverse critic, by 500.

The Territories have so far returned seven Government supporters and two opponents. One election is yet to be held, which will undoubtedly go with the Government. When the House dissolved the Territories had four members, all Government supporters. An addition of six new constituencies was a change in itself, and contained great possibilities. The result is that while the Territories, before sent four supporters, they now send a majority of four. The majorities in nearly all cases are large, and in most are very large, showing a strong approval by the people of the Government's railway policy, which in the Territories was squarely the issue. The two members of the previous parliament who stood for re-election, were returned by largely increased majorities, and the two new constituencies which were the residence of the other former members, both returned Government supporters, also by increased majorities.

British Columbia has followed the example of Nova Scotia and sent a solid contingent of Government supporters. Five constituencies have sent five government supporters, and the other two in which elections have not yet been held, will no doubt do likewise. A feature of the British Columbia elections so far held was the presence in the field of socialist candidates in Nanaimo, Victoria and Vancouver constituencies. They had been expected to adversely affect the Government support. But apparently failed to do so, as in Victoria and Vancouver they lost their deposits, and in Nanaimo nearly so. Another feature of the elections in British Columbia was the sweeping capture of Victoria city by the Liberals. Victoria had two members up to this election; and they were always Conservative until the election of G. Riley, Liberal, as one of the members at last election. Now that the city has only one member, Riley is elected by the sweeping majority of 500 over Col. Prior, who was member during several parliaments, and was provincial premier for a short time.

The Yukon election has not yet taken place, and it is difficult to know what the result will be. It was represented by a Liberal, Mr. Ross, in the last House, but is strongly claimed by the Conservatives.

Concerning the Yukon to the opposition, the standing of the parties west of Lake Superior, is, or is confidently expected to be, 22 Government to 5 opposition, as against 14 Government and 4 opposition when parliament was dissolved; that is counting Puttee, of Winnipeg, as a Government supporter. On this count the proportion of Government support remains about the same, but the actual majority is increased from 10 to 16, a clear gain of six, and a vote in parliament of over three to one. But owing to the large majorities of many of the Government supporters the vote in parliament does not at all adequately express the sentiment of the people at the polls in endorsement of the Government's administration and policy.

The Canadian Northwest Homestead Regulations

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, excepting one 26, which has not been so treated, or reserved to provide woodlots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age to the extent of one quarter section, of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY.—Entry may be made for the district in which the land to be taken is situated, or, if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior (Ottawa), the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situated, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10.00 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES.—A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, reside upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent, may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If a settler has obtained a patent for his homestead, or a certificate for the issue of such patent, countersigned in the manner prescribed by this Act, and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

(4) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him, in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of Clause 2, 3 or 4, must or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation cultivate 30 acres of his homestead and have besides 80 acres substantiated.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd June, 1920.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may be again thrown open for entry.

Application for patent should be made at the end of three years, before the local agent, sub-agent, or deputy commissioner. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands, at Ottawa, of his intention to do so.

Information.—Newly arrived immigrants will receive at the Immigration Office, in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office, in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing land to suit them. Full information respecting the land timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba, or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

JAMES A. SMART, Deputy Minister of the Interior. N.B.—In addition to Free Grant lands to which the regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

Perfect Protection against Northwest
Winters

Ordinary underwear is made for ordinary climates. Most makers can't appreciate the intense cold of the Northwest. Their garments are all right for freezing weather, but entirely too light for 30 to 50 below zero.

Stanfield's
Unshrinkable

is knitted in special weights, especially for the severe winters of this section. It's planned by men who know the climate and the people—know exactly what they want—know how to knit it thick enough for warmth, yet not too heavy for comfort.

Best of all—Stanfield's is guaranteed absolutely unshrinkable. All sizes to perfectly fit every figure. Reading dealers throughout the west sell Stanfield's.

THE CITY BANQUET

1879. Frank Oliver opened the first store in what has since become the city of Edmonton, and Mr. McDougall opened the second. He believed that the West, with its great resources should become the granary of Great Britain, with Edmonton as a great commercial and well governed city.

Donald Ross then gave a song in his characteristic style, which was well received. This was followed by a song, Men of the North, by Howard Stutchbury.

The toast to Trade and Commerce was coupled with the names of J. F. Fowler, president of the Wetaskiwin board of trade; H. H. Gaetz, president of the Red Deer board of trade; and J. N. Niblock, assistant superintendent of the C. P. R. at Calgary.

Mr. Fowler spoke for some few minutes on the development of the country, and the causes of this development. Western Canada's climate and soil are unequalled; there is an abundance of fuel and water, and particularly so in Northern Alberta, which should make it a great manufacturing as well as agricultural district. Western Canada should be the home of prosperous millions. There was a charm about the city of Edmonton—the city set on the hill. He offered Wetaskiwin's most sincere felicitations to Edmonton on this important occasion in her history.

H. H. Gaetz brought Red Deer's greeting, and did not fail to impress upon the gathering the importance of Red Deer itself. He referred briefly to Red Deer's progress—the installation of waterworks, sewers electric lighting and a local telephone system. Twenty years ago he had freighted over the C. & E. trail, and spoke of the wonderful progress since that time; two cities had sprung up at either end of the trail, and dozens of thriving towns intervening.

J. N. Niblock spoke of the North-West as the bullseye of the Dominion, and looked forward to see a great city at Edmonton. A city had been built up here without any outside aid. The Canadian Northern railway will soon be here, said Mr. Niblock; the Grand Trunk Pacific is coming, and these railways should assure the development of huge tracts of country as yet unsubdivided. Mr. Niblock spoke of the development which the C. P. R. brought to the West, and stated that the C. P. R. would, in the not far future, come to Edmonton with another transcontinental railway, and that it would enter Edmonton over a bridge spanning the Saskatchewan from bank to bank.

A song, "Queen of the Earth," by G. H. McLeod followed. He was forced to respond to repeated encores, and gave a splendid rendering of Anne Laurie.

The vice-chairman, M. McCauley, proposed the toast to Sister cities and towns, coupled with the names of W. H. Cushing, Calgary, and Mayor Mitchener, of Red Deer.

Mr. Cushing extended Calgary's greetings. He felt almost like a citizen of Edmonton, having so many interests here. Edmonton was destined to be a great city, and the Edmonton people were justly proud of their city.

Mr. Mitchener extended the greeting of Red Deer and other towns not represented. He believed there was plenty of room for the cities of Edmonton and Calgary in the north and south, and the city of Red Deer in the centre. He hoped that Red Deer would soon be able to return the compliment and invite the people of Edmonton to assist in making Red Deer a city. Jas. Reilly, of Calgary who was called on, congratulated Edmonton on its attaining the rank of a city, and assured Edmonton of the hearty good will of the people of Calgary.

After the singing of Robin Adair by a quartette, Messrs. Heathcote, Race, McLeod and Stutchbury, the toast to the learned professions coupled with the name of Chief Justice Sifton, was proposed.

The Chief Justice congratulated Edmonton on its new honor. A great development awaits us. With the coming of the new railroads, the country will develop as never before. We have magnificent resources, a fine population of the best of other provinces, and he could look forward with confidence to the future.

The toast to the Educational and Religious Institutions was coupled with the names of Rev. D. G. McQueen and Principal Riddell. Mr. McQueen had the pleasure of seeing Edmonton grow up from small beginnings. He referred with credit to the early establishment of churches and schools in the Territories, and he believed that the Territorial system of education was the best in Canada. The old-timers had broad foundations, and the West as it is flourishing to-day, is an eloquent tribute to their energy, enterprise and foresight. Legislation may make Edmonton a city, but it rests with our people to make it a good and great city. He was pleased to see the ladies present at the banquet, and believed that they should have been invited to sit at the table with the men. Principal Riddell stated that he was not a pidd-timer, but he was pleased to be present on such an important occasion. If the early history of Edmonton has been marked with such great development, what may we expect for the future? The educational and religious institutions were of paramount importance to the West. We have a great country, and it should inspire its citizens to live good whole lives.

W. H. Cushing then proposed a toast to the City of Edmonton, which was drunk amid great enthusiasm. The quartette sang "The Song of Edmonton" in response to this.

In days of yore from many a shore To the west the traders came And founded on Saskatchewan's banks

A city of fair fame. Here may it grow, Alberta's pride. And join in peace forever The Scotchman, English, Irish, French

And all the rest together. Fair Edmonton, our city dear. Old Edmonton for ever. God hear our prayer and prosper us.

Old Edmonton for ever! Our fair Alberta now is known Over the world from sea to sea: Her bracing winds, her rolling plains The country of the free. Here comes the throng from far and near.

To share our wealth and glory—The wealth of lake and soil and mine—The boast of Grit and Tory.

Alberta fair, our country dear, Alberta fair for ever. Her sunny skies and fertile fields, Alberta fair for ever.

On fair Alberta's far-famed land May rich blessings ever shower; And may she always lead the van, And grow in wealth and power. And may this city prosper too.

And still remain the glory Of all our western Canada—Well known in song and story, Fair Edmonton, our city dear.

Old Edmonton for ever; God hear our prayer and prosper us. Old Edmonton for ever.

J. A. McDougall proposed the toast to the ladies, which was well received.

This brought to a close a most important function in the history of Edmonton.

Melfort's Prospects

The Moon, Nov. 22:

Last Friday morning a special train steamed into Melfort, bringing William Mackenzie, president of the C. N. R. Railway; D. B. Hanna, 3rd Vice-president; A. D. Davidson, president, and W. Hove, director of the Saskatchewan Valley and Manitoba Land Company; also Mr. Gray, capitalist, of Boston.

Mr. Mackenzie and Mr. Davidson each drove a short distance out from Melfort, and both expressed themselves in very flattering terms in regard to this section, and the bright future they are satisfied is in store for it.

Mr. Davidson stated that the Land Company had a delegation in this section now from Wisconsin, who are well pleased with the Carrot river valley, and are negotiating for the purchase of 450,000 acres, on which they will place at least 500 settlers next season.

In answer to a query of the "Moon" representative, as to when the company were likely to take over the railway between Melfort and Erwood, Mr. Hanna stated he did not know, but Mr. Mackenzie would tell

THE GUM REMOVED

THE microscope shows each leaf of tobacco is covered with long soft hairs which exude a viscid juice.

This is called the gum, and it covers the surface with a moist glutinous exudation.

Tobacco, to be good, must have all this gum driven out.

In Manicragua I procure tobacco that has all this gum "sweated" by the natural heat of the climate.

Only the dry, well matured leaf remains—the leaf that when I age for three years will give a cool, fragrant smoke—odorless and aromatic—that's the characteristic odor of my Pharaoh.
